

WE ARE THE SHAPING FUTURE

WHO IS KAFEIN?

Kafein Technology began its journey in 2005 and has developed many projects on technology, banking, telecommunication, service, retail, insurance, e-commerce, and mobile payment projects for various companies both in Turkey and around the world. It also develops technologies in the fields of big data analysis, PDPL, security, and mobile applications, while continuing to work on carrying its innovative solutions to the next level by carrying out continuous R&D projects with global partners. The success of Kafein comes from acting together with its 700 employees, customers, and business partners and from preserving its innovative vision of service quality.

SOLUTIONS PORTFOLIO

Turnkey Projects: After analyzing the needs of your organization, Kafein offers customized solutions that will meet your needs to create added value and differentiate you in a competitive sector.

Robotic Process Automation (RPA) Service: Kafein creates a flawless operation process by imitating the employees of the institution completely and at the same time, also eliminating the mistakes that a human can make.

Digital Transformation: Kafein determines your maturity level in your digital transformation projects with its experienced experts and helps to form and apply your strategies in the field.

Data Warehouse Consulting: Kafein provides you with professional support for all stages of data warehouse projects with the philosophy of processing the right source with information.

Data Decision Management: By assimilating the goals of your company, examining and compiling the necessary data, and peering over the subtitles and even little details, Kafein provides you with the best service in data-based decision-making processes.

GDPR (KVKK) Projects: Kafein supports you to become one of the reliable actors in the industry and take a solid step into the digital world, by offering a 100 % reliable structure for your personal information security and privacy processes.

Advanced Analytics Solutions: Kafein Technology's experienced consultants and data scientists gather information, understand the business problem, design a data analysis strategy, collect and format the required data, apply algorithms or machine learning techniques, and make recommendations and decisions backed by data.

Data Virtualization Consulting: Kafein paves the way for administrative processes to become much more practical with innovative and competitive data virtualization solutions.

Cyber Security Solutions: With Cyber Security Solutions under the brand All-in Cyber, Kafein increases the information security levels of institutions and creates a security circle that brings the process, humans, and technology against cyber-attacks.

SERVICES PORTFOLIO

Managed Services Consulting: With predictable costs, regular maintenance and upgrades, time savings, and expertise, Kafein Managed Services gives you the support you need and provides you a competitive advantage.

IT Testing Services: Kafein ensures the implementation of software products with high quality by designing each project in accordance with the project specifications.

ADM Services (Software Development): Kafein develops customized technologies and software with the combination of coding, design and functionality in a compact form.

IT Operation Management: After analyzing IT processes of your company, Kafein's experienced operation teams undertake the maintenance and operation of all or a part of the IT infrastructure according to your needs. Kafein team controls the process 24/7 with its monitoring systems and intervenes quickly in case of any problem.

Outsourcing Services: With its expert teams in the field of information technologies, Kafein undertakes all the operational management needs of your company and establishes a more professional structure by reducing your costs and saving your time.

PRODUCTS PORTFOLIO

Data Touch: As a data security and governance solution, Data Touch enables you to sense your data with a broad range of analysis options and leads you to make your data-driven decisions much wiser while assuring your data security and privacy concerns.

Test Data Management (TDM): TDM is designed for companies to generate test data. By imitating real data, it creates data sets that are fully compliant with regulations and independent of actual data being used by corporate to create provides secure data via TDM that forms data sets that imitate companies' real data.

Infraskope: Infraskope is a log management tool that monitors operating systems, network devices, and applications, allows the customer to query/analyze the records collected from these sources, and runs warning mechanisms for important records.

Data Focus: Data Focus is an integrated data governance tool created to enable you to manage and maintain your in-house data assets. Data Focus scans your data asset and creates an up-to-date map of your data environment with automatic data discovery, sensitive data classification and data usage flow.

Dataskope Database Activity Monitoring: The main function of the Dataskope product is to ensure that accesses and changes to critical database systems are in an expected, planned, and desired manner. It is a database audit product that allows customers to easily access information about who accesses sensitive data and what operations they perform at which intervals and informs the authorities about the events with predefined alarms.

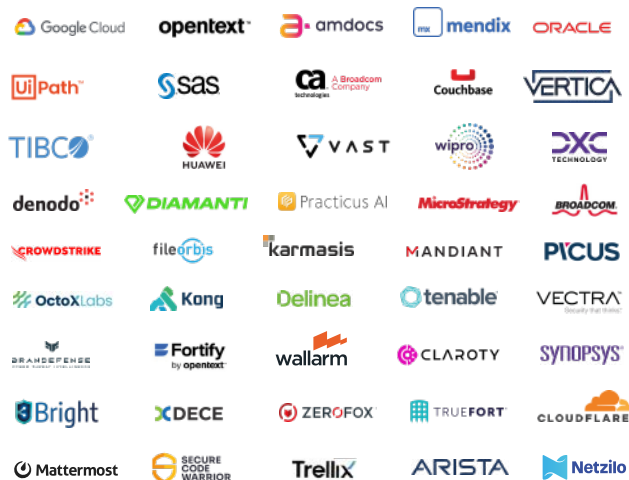

Foramind: Kafein presents mind-mapping software that enables users to develop and organize ideas by visualizing them. It helps users to take effective notes, strengthens memory and promotes creative thinking.

Corporate Portal: It is a business process management platform that manages and integrates financials, operations, commerce, reporting, and human resource activities for a smooth business process.

Vast Data Universal Storage: Kafein Technology, through its collaboration with Vast Data, with its Universal Storage solution, provides an affordable system that enables organizations to restore all their IT assets in real-time and 50x faster than legacy PBBAS.

30+ PARTNERS

Global Business Partners

90+ CUSTOMERS

In Telecommunications, Transportation, Technology, Finance & Others

GET IN TOUCH

Phone:

+90 (212) 924 2030

Mail:

info@kafein.com.tr

Web:

www.kafein.com.tr

WE ARE BUILDING
THE FUTURE